Art Unit: 3735

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 7-8 and 11-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 7-8 claim what part of the body the attachment is attached to and is directed to the intended use of the device and fails to provide any further limitations of the device itself. Claims 11-13 appear to be directed to steps in the method of making the device and not to steps in a method of using the device as is claim 10.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-8, 10 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Maveety (5,054,299).

Maveety discloses a band of plastically deformable material (38) that has a first and second end and a length in between. The band is wrappable about a user's appendage and maintains its position without user intervention. The band has a cover (40) that encloses the length of the deformable material.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 9 and 11-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Maveety in view of Thiery (297,874) or Yurman (5,074,127).

Maveety discloses the claimed device except for a first and second bead secured to the end of the band. Thiery and Yurman both teach a band that includes a bead at both ends to be decorative or ornamental. It would have been obvious to modify Maveety to include a bead at both ends as taught by Thiery and Yurman to allow the device to be more decorative or ornamental.

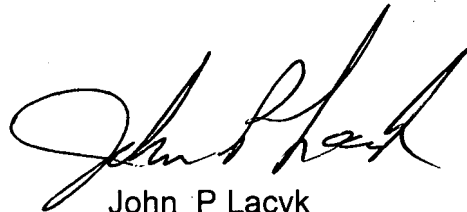

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Hayakawa is cited to further show the state of the art.
